The Ethics of Psychoanalysis in Extension

This seminar will provide an opportunity for preliminary work on the theme of the Rendezvous of the International Forums, School of Psychoanalysis of the Forums of the Lacanian Field (IF-SPFLF), to be held in Sao Paulo in July 2026.

The ethics of psychoanalysis, synonymous with its politics and carried out by the act of the psychoanalyst, refers to what is aimed at in each psychoanalysis concerning the destiny that the unconscious imposes on us in terms of our singular desires and symptoms. The presence and possible effects of the discourse of psychoanalysis in civilization depend on this, in a joint and several manner.

In 1967, in his "Proposition on the Psychoanalyst of the School," Lacan made a diagnosis concerning the state of this repercussion of the psychoanalytic act in extension, that is, in the other discourse, well beyond the doctrine concerning each cure. More than half a century later, it is time to bring it up to date with the developments in our capitalist world.

Colette Soler is the holder of the University Aggrégation and a psychoanalyst trained by Jacques Lacan. She practises and teaches psychoanalysis in Paris. She is a founder member of the School of Psychoanalysis of the Forums of the Lacanian Field and the author of What Lacan Said About Women, Lacanian Affects, as well as numerous other publications.
